

Polk County Public Library

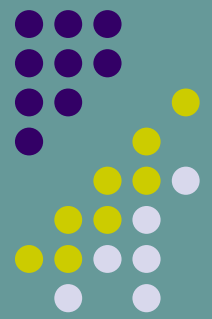

JobLink/
Entrepreneurial and
Small Business
Resource Center

Front entrance to the Polk County Public Library

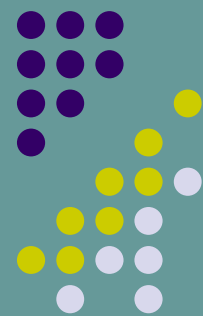

Community Partnerships

- Polk County Public Library
- NC Employment Security Commission
- Isothermal Planning & Development Commission -- WIA
- Isothermal Community College
- Polk County Economic Development
- NC Small Business Center Network
- Polk County Department of Social Services
- Western Carolina Community Action
- NC Vocational Rehabilitation
- Polk County Schools

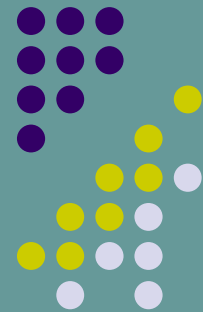

Isothermal Community College
Polk Campus

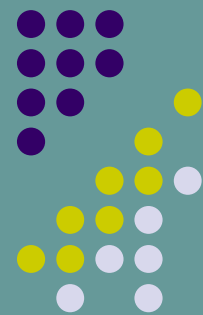

Senator Tom Apadoca and NC State Representative David Guice join representative from Polk County local government and other regional support agencies at the opening of the new Entrepreneur and Small Business Reference Center at Polk County Public Library

BUSINESS REFERENCE

Business Reference Area and Collection

Linda Knippa with Isothermal Planning and Development Commission (WIA)

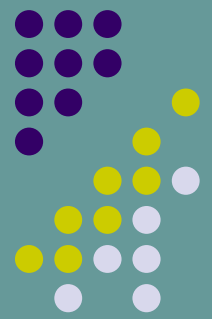

Career Computer dedicated to individuals typing resumes or performing job searches

Private Study/Interview Rooms

Impact of this service:

Medical Assistant students at the Isothermal Community College Polk Campus

